

Nebraska Game and Parks

Firearm Hunter Education Course Offered

A firearm hunter education course will be offered by Nebraska Game and Parks Commission volunteer instructors in Hay Springs on Saturday, February 1, 8, 15 and 22.

The free course will be held at the Hay Springs Fire Hall. The course will provide instruction in the areas of safe firearms use, shooting and sighting techniques, hunter ethics, game identification and conservation management. Students must attend all of the sessions to complete the course.

In Nebraska, hunters ages 12 through 29 must have on their person proof of successful completion of firearm hunter education while hunting with a firearm or crossbow.

Participants must register for the course at HuntSafeNebraska.org

Must be 11 years old to join.
