Look at what we are up to...

This week we learned about our five senses! We had fun listening to various sounds and guessing what they were. On Tuesday we smelled a bunch of different scents and had to guess what they were as well. It was interesting to hear the difference in our opinions of what we thought the scents were. Wednesday we explored our sense of taste by tasting limes, lemons, caramel syrup, saltine crackers, kiwis and grapefruits! You should have seen our faces while eating the limes :) Our five senses unit rounded out with us putting all of our senses together to describe freshly popped popcorn.

This week was also homecoming week! On Monday the afternoon class watched their very own class royalty, Megan and Jaydub, during coronation. On Thursday we enjoyed the pep rally downtown. GO HAWKS!!!!
