News for 12/10 - 12/13

Another week is upon us and we are as busy as ever!

The preschool students are busy practicing songs with Mrs. Varvel each day. We are so excited to share them with all of you at our Christmas Open House!

Thank you for making sure your children are appropriately dressed for the weather! While it has been

Our theme this week is: "J" is for Jets. We will focus on the letter "J" as well as different forms of transportation!

unseasonably warm, there are many mornings that it is uncomfortable and hats and gloves are necessary! Please LABEL coats, hats, gloves, and sweatshirts! Many of the children have the same or similar clothing and oftentimes it is difficult figuring out what belongs to each child. Thank you!

Looking forward to another great week!

Preschool Christmas Open House

Please mark your calendars for our Preschool Christmas Open House on December 17th at 6:00pm! Parents, Siblings, Grandparents and family members are invited! Please ask Mrs. Heiting if you have any questions.

Social Skills

As you know, we have a very active classroom with all of our little friends! One of the major things we are working on is "Using our words." When children are in conflict or disagreement over something, I encourage them to "use their words." Rather than physically expressing themselves or yelling or crying the students in our class are making improvements when I use the phrase "Please use your words." I encourage you to use this language at home as well! Many times a solution is achieved sooner and with a lot less conflict when we just communicate!

Scholastic Book Order

Last week you should have received a Scholastic Book Order form. Please return by tomorrow (Tuesday, December 11th) with a check made out to Scholastic if you choose to order books for your child! It's a great way to encourage literacy and books make great Christmas gifts and stocking stuffers! ☺
