Look at what we learned this week!

Brrrr!!! Our week was shortened due to snow and freezing cold temperatures! We hope that everyone was able to stay warm. On Monday Ms. Wiepen introduced the letter Rr to us. We learned that the words reindeer, red, and robots all start with the letter R! We searched through magazines for things that are red and cut them out! This was a lot of fun.

Tuesday we pretended to be reindeer and played a game called, Go Reindeer Go. We had to draw action word cards from a bag and then act them out like reindeer.

One of our favorite projects of the week was making robots. Ms. Wiepen remembered making these when she was our age and thought that maybe we would like to make robots to. We made the robots out of recycled material that we brought from home such as cans, milk jug lids, pop bottle lids and even pop tabs. We also added a few items from school such as pipe cleaners, buttons, pom-poms and feathers! These turned out really neat and can be seen on display in our hallway! They are definitely worth stopping by to look at if you have free time!

Update from library

Reminder that we have library every Wednesday as long as we have school and Mrs. Mathews is here! When your child brings their book bags back please remind them they go in the top of their cubbies. When they have been exchanged with a new bag we will hang them from their cubby hooks. Bags are typically exchanged Wednesday mornings. If you do not have a yellow book bag at home please let me know so that we can get you one. Everyone is doing a great job of reading with their children. I am pleased with how many sheets I get back each week that are filled. We have some children who have already read 150+ books! WAY TO GO! Reading is a great way to bond with your child and support their learning at home.

Special Notes

As some of you may have noticed our preschool newsletter is now posted to the school website (www.hshawks.com) and to the Hay Springs Public School Facebook page. I will still be sending out the hard-copy weekly but this way if you happen to lose the newsletter or you just need to quick check what we are up to you can look online at your convenience!

Next weeks theme

Gg is for gingerbread and green!
